449 An interesting Victoria Cross Group 880 0 0

Awarded to

Lieut. W. R. P. Hamilton.

(a) Victoria Cross (Lieut. Walter Richard Pollock Hamilton, Bengal Staff Corps. 2nd April 1879).

(b) I.G.S., 1 bar, Jowaki 1877-8 (Lieut. Corps of Guides).

(c) Afghan., 1878-80, no bar (Lieut. Cor. of Gds.).

(d) Silver pocket watch, engraved on the inside "Burned on the body of Lt. Walter Pollock Hamilton, V.C. Aged 23. At Kabul, 3rd Sept. 1879." Very fine. 4

∴ "For conspicuous gallantry during the action at Futtehabad on 2nd April, 1879, in leading on the Guide Cavalry in a charge against very superior numbers of the enemy, and particularly at a critical moment, when his commanding officer (Major Wigram Battye) fell. Lieut. Hamilton—then the only officer left with the regiment—assumed command and cheered on his men to avenge Major Battye's death. In this charge Lieut. Hamilton, seeing Sowar Dowlut Ram down, and attacked by three of the enemy, whilst entangled with his horse (which had been killed), rushed to the rescue, and followed by a few of his men, cut down all three and saved the life of Sowar Dowlut Ram."

Lieut. Hamilton was selected by Sir Louis Cavagnari for his political assistant and to command the escort of seventy men of the Corps of Guides when it was determined to send an Embassy to Kabul. The entire Embassy and escort—except one or two men of the Corps of Guides—was foully murdered after a six weeks residence in the capital on 3rd Sept. 1879. Full details are contained in "The V.C. and D.S.O." Vol. 1, pages 93 and 94.

∴ Entered 67th Reg. as Ensign, 1st Oct. 1795, and proceeded with it to St. Domingo, where he served until the evacuation of that Island; and then went to Jamaica, and returned to England in 1801, where he was stationed, and in Guernsey and Alderney, until 1809, when he was appointed to the 95th Rifle Corps. Immediately after, he went in the expedition to Walcheren, where he joined as Brigade-Maj. to the Hon. Sir W. Stewart. He embarked for Cadiz in March, 1810, where he remained during the siege, until Sept., 1810, when he went to Portugal to join the army under the Duke of Wellington.

He was wounded in a severe skirmish at Sobreuil, in two places, hip, and left arm, 12th Oct., a few days after the army had got into the lines of Torres Vedras; and in consequence, obliged to return to England. He rejoined in Nov., 1811, took the command of the 3rd Batt. of the 95th, which he commanded at the siege and storm of Ciudad Rodrigo; and for which he obtained a medal. He commanded the same batt. at the siege and storm of Badajos, for which he obtained another medal, and one also for the battle of Salamanca. He continued to command the batt. all that campaign, until the retreat from Madrid and Burgos. He was next present at the battle of Vittoria; and at all the different skirmishes that took place in which the 1st division were employed; and was again severely wounded in the right arm, on the 1st Aug., one of the days of the battles of the Pyrennees, when the British were drawing Soult back to his former position, from which he had advanced to the attack, on the 25th July, being then utterly disabled from the loss of the use of the left arm, and severely wounded in the right; he was obliged to return to England.

On the average we issue twelve Coin catalogues a year, some of which are usually of sales of important collections. The priced catalogues are posted to subscribers as soon as ready. usually about three weeks after the date of sale and the subscription is . . . .
